K.S.A. 38-2255.

Notes on Use

When the person (not a parent) granted custody of a child under the provisions of K.S.A. 38-2255(d) plans to place the child with a parent, the person shall give the court written notice stating the basis for the custodian's belief that placement with a parent is no longer contrary to the welfare or best interest of the child. The court may set the matter for hearing. If the matter is set for hearing, the custodian shall not return the child home without written consent of the court.
