Notes on Use

Whenever a child is placed in a qualified residential treatment program (QRTP), the statute requires the secretary notify the court in writing within seven days of placement. After receiving the notice from the secretary, the clerk of the district court must provide this notice of placement in the QRTP to the following individuals or entities: (1) the petitioner, (2) the attorney for the parents, if any, (3) each parent at the last known address, (4) the child, if 12 or more years of age, (5) the child's guardian ad litem, (6) any other party or interested party, (7) the child's court-appointed special advocate, if any, and (8) Indian Tribe, if any. K.S.A. 38-2291.

Within 30 days after the child is placed in a QRTP, anyone on the above list may request, in writing, that the court conduct a hearing regarding the child's placement. If a hearing is requested, the court shall conduct the hearing within 60 days of placement. K.S.A. 38-2291.
