Notes on Use

Juvenile offender proceedings are commenced by the filing of a complaint. K.S.A. 38-2327. It is the county or district attorney's duty to prepare and file the complaint, and there is no provision within the code for filing by any other individual. Paragraphs #1 through 4, in addition to the date of birth which is included in the caption, are statutory requirements. The statute further requires that the essential facts constituting the offense be stated, which may be in the language of the statute alleged to have been violated. The precise time of the commission of the offense need not be stated, except where the time is an indispensable element of the offense. Also required is a request for child support to be paid by the parents in the event the juvenile is removed from the home. The names of all known witnesses shall be endorsed upon the complaint.
